Online Classes that Foster a Lifelong Love of Reading

These literature programs offer students the unique opportunity to read some of the best books ever written for young people and then talk about what they've read during 12 weekly, live online classes. Students love talking about these great books in a real-time, online class where they see, hear, and speak with a teacher and classmates their age. As students become skilled readers with strong comprehension, reading becomes effortless and deeply pleasurable.

Your son or daughter will become absorbed in wonderful books that engage the imagination and the heart. Class discussions then explore the meaningful themes in each book, such as growing up, forming friendships, overcoming adversity, and leading a life of integrity and purpose. By participating in these lively discussions led by an experienced, dynamic teacher, each student will grow into an engaged, enthusiastic reader.

- ✓ Multiple class sections available for each grade
